State Funeral Director & Embalmer's Exam

The Alabama State Funeral Director & Embalmer's Exam is now administered by the International Conference. The International Conference is the same agency that administers the National Funeral Director's & Embalmer's Exam. The Conference has their minimum passing score set at 75%. In accordance with the Alabama state funeral law §395-X-2-.01 and §34-13-94(c), the passing score for the Alabama State Funeral Director's Exam and Embalmer's Exam is 70%. If your score is between 70% and 74% after taking the exam, the print-out from the Conference will say that you failed, when you have actually PASSED! The Board cannot change the scoring practices of the Conference. If there are any questions regarding this matter, you may call the Board office.

Inspection & Law Highlights

§34-13-110 . No person not licensed as a funeral director or embalmer shall be permitted to perform the functions of a funeral director or embalmer.

§34-13-52b . Every license issued under this chapter shall be displayed in the place of business or employment of the licensee (Note: If an establishment use a trade embalmer or part-time funeral director his/her license(s) should be posted also.)

§22-19-5 - (a) Each funeral establishment taking possession of a dead human body shall maintain an identification system approved by the Alabama Board of Funeral Service. The identification system may include any dignified method, including, but not limited to, an arm band or a wrist band, that will ensure the ability to identify the body from the time of taking possession of the body until the body is transferred to another entity or until final disposition.

§395-X-6-.06 . In addition to the identification systems as provided in §22-19-5, Code of Ala. 1975, the Alabama Board of Funeral Service hereby provides that non-detachable ankle braces are deemed as an approved method of identification of dead human bodies in the possession or custody of a funeral establishment in this state.

§34-13-56 . n. Refusing to promptly surrender the custody of a dead human body, upon the express order of the person lawfully entitled to the custody thereof.
